The Relic: An invisible pain, an incurable sadness

Tea toned cyanotype and embroidery on soiled linen construction

drop cloth

2023

86 1/2 h x 45" w

Embroidered poem reads:

If you lived here

This might be a home

If you lived here

You'd really be alive

If you lived here

I'd have a dream I dreamed

Since long ago

Since I was small

And my hair was long

And I stayed in a shelter bed

If you lived here

You'd see the walls gather love and life

If you lived here

I'd be your beautiful wife

If you lived here
The flowers would bloom and
The trees grow tall
If you lived here
you might feel nothing at all
